THE OREGON LEGISLATURE

Sixth Biennial Session

(Correspondence of the Daily Oregonian)

SENATE—Afternoon Session

Salem Oregon Sept 15

There would not be time to go into the [illegible] required by a [illegible] writs of election I know that most of the gentlemen are lawyers yet there are [illegible] to explain that he meaning cannot be misapprehended I cite [illegible] 13 N Y Report Davis vs Giles The [illegible] election as the statute requires [illegible] was elected by the people and the Governor [illegible] after a judicial examination gave the office to Davis [illegible] case to the one before the Senate [illegible] certificate of election [illegible] the people have a right to elect Mr Mosher [illegible] The voice of the people is the supreme law In this State Samuel Parker was elected to the Senate without a vacancy having been declared or an election ordered Afterward Mr J C Peebles received all the votes cast for that office yet Mr Parker was admitted, to the exclusion of Mr Peebles The gentleman admits that he held his appointment prior to his election then it was void

By the Constitution the County of Douglas is entitled to a Senator By what [illegible] then has Coos and Curry two Senators here Is it right to swamp a Democratic county by two Republican counties in our [illegible] of the Constitution? In the California case Turner was not accounted an officer because he was not a permanent officer

Mr Herman read from a letter from Senator Williams stating that he had grave doubts about the right of Mr Herman to a seat, and that Mr Delano had not [illegible] what his opinion would be It would be an excuse for the Democracy to eject him if they should have a majority Such were the views of Mr Williams and as he thought the opinion of Mr Delano when he says that it is the custom of his office to consider deputies officers

The gentleman would have the benefit of your doubts? That is the rule in criminal cases, if the gentleman is here as a criminal it is your duty to give him the benefit of the doubt

This receipt which I have signed by Binger Herman is with out other than his own official signature and the testimony of his or my statements if exceptions cannot be heard In the act creating the revenue department and its officers the deputy is plainly designated as an officer Page 2[illegible]5 section 10 defines his powers and duties as equal with those of the Collector The letter from Delano is authority that should be unquestioned, there being no appeal from his decisions

I have not cited many authorities It is not necessary to do so when we have the decisions of Delano, the chief officer in the Revenue Department and of Senator Williams The people of Douglas county have expressed a choice your Constitution is plain and it rests with you to decide who will properly represent Douglas county

Messrs Hendershott and Burch moved a call of the Senate which was ordered and 21 members answered to their names—all the members being present except Mr Stout, too unwell to be present

At the request of Mr Pershbaker the reports were both read and the vote being taken resulted in 8 nays (all Republicans) and 12 nays (all Democrats) so the motion to adopt the minority report was lost

The question recurring on the adoption of the majority report

Mr. Cornelius moved to strike out the part entitling Mr Mosher to a seat Ayes 8 (all Republicans); nays, 12, (all Democrats) Mr Herman not voting

The majority report was adopted without further division although a division was called

On motion of Mr Hendershott the Secretary of State was invited to administer the oath to Mr Mosher

The Secretary of State came into the hall and administered the oath to Mr Mosher

On motion the Senate adjourned until 10 A M to morrow

SENATE—Morning Session

Salem Friday Sept 16

The Senate was called to order at 10 A M, by President Fay

Prayer was offered by Rev Joab Powell of the Baptist Church of Linn county

The roll was called and all the members except Pershbaker and Stout were recorded as present

The Journal of yesterday was read and approved

AN EXCITING DEBATE OVER THE CONTESTED CASES FROM BENTON AND YAMHILL

Mr Hendershott from the Committee on Elections at the request of the committee asked leave to send for persons and papers in the contested cases

Mr Brown of Baker—How long will it take? Will it delay the session?

Mr Cornelius—We do not expect there will be any delay The oral testimony will probably be at hand when the committee get ready for it

Mr Hendershott—The committee met this morning and adjourned until 4 o'clock this evening The depositions are very voluminous We will commence the examination at the hour indicated for the next meeting of the committee

Mr Mosher—I am opposed to this motion for two reasons There has been an agreement to take depositions The parties have proceeded to take written testimony and have had time to do so If we send for papers there will be expenses to pay which are unnecessary Again it furnishes the means for delay If you authorize the committee to send for papers the sitting members an[d] prolong the contest while acting with [illegible] the [illegible] if they have a right to the seats be entitled to them at once

Mr Watts—There may have been some stipulation in the other case but in Yamhill there was none either expressed or implied There are witnesses here in town who will not appear unless compelled for fear it might injure their party It would be futile to send for them without authority If I am not entitled to a seat I want to know it early and not having had notice of what might be relied on by the contestant until he had taken his testimony I could not be prepared to offset what might be presented here by Mr Newby

Mr Cochran The committee [illegible] ask for further time I don't know whether both gentlemen [illegible] from Yamhill [illegible] I little doubt that the sitting member had equal opportunity with the contestant to take depositions The people do not want to be dragged before the Committee on Elections to no purpose and a large bill of costs entailed upon the state

Mr Cornelius This committee has not asked for time, but for authority to investigate properly If these cases were referred to the committee to make a report on a certain line if they are not to investigate them the Senate should take the matter from the committee and try it in the Senate Mr Watts [illegible] Mr Newby does not object [illegible] that is a matter for the Senate and [illegible] Mr Watts and Mr Newby to decide I want to see the evidence and vote understandingly

Mr Watts—[illegible] at that I have [illegible] It is not true Some testimony was taken by Mr Newby last week and [illegible] It will be impossible to get the [illegible] town unless the [illegible] one [illegible] shall [illegible]

Mr C[illegible] to submit the Benton county [illegible] depositions

Mr Hendershott I accept the amendment

Mr Cornelius—The gentleman cannot accept an amendment to a motion made unless the mover consents All we ask is that the committee have power to send for persons and papers I we amend this motion as we may find necessary in the Benton contest will we not tie ourselves up by this proposed amendment

Mr Cochrane—The sitting member from Benton is here and can tell he wants The attorneys on each side have traveled over Benton and parts of other counties at a great expense If you send for all the witnesses it will open a new and [illegible] investigation Whenever I see a disposition to delay and create expense I shall favor winding up In the contest from [illegible] for years ago there were a large number of witnesses each reading a bill of costs for mileage and attendance

Mr Hendershott It seems that the gentleman distrusts the committee [illegible] to be [illegible] assigned to it I stated that the committee [illegible] meet at 4 o'clock this afternoon and proceed with the investigation The depositions are voluminous, and of necessity will require time for their examination

Mr Fay I have a right to vote intelligently and I don't care whether the contestant be Democrat or Republican [illegible] If our decision [illegible] I will [illegible] the [illegible] If what the Senator from Yamhill states is true, that Mr Newby took testimony last week [illegible] should have time to refute it and I say it is unfair [illegible] prevent testimony being brought up on which we can act understandingly As to the Benton county contest it don't matter what arrangement has been made by contestants that cannot bind them or us I suppose they have agreed to abide and rest on depositions If Mr Cochran was to discover that his opponent is a foreigner would he not be entitled to contest notwithstanding his agreement? This would be discourteous to the committee and imply a want of confidence in them

After an explanation that Mr Cochran's motion to amend was not before the House Mr Cochran said that he had been acting under a misapprehension, and renewed his motion to amend so that the motion of Mr Cornelius should only apply to Yamhill county

The yeas and nays were called with the following result

Ayes—Baldwin Brown of Baker Burch Cochran Hoult Lieuallen Mosher Patterson and Trevett 9

Nays—Brown of Marion Cornelius Crawford Hendershott Holtzclaw Moores Powell Thompson Watts Witham and President Fay—11

Absent—Pershbaker and Stout

The amendment was lost and the question recurring on the request of the committee it was granted 11 ayes and 8 noes Cochran Hoult and Patterson voting nay

Mr Brown of Baker—There are several gentlemen on the outside desirous of presenting memorials and resolutions Now would be the best time when there is little before the Senate

Mr Mosher offered a joint resolution allowing Binger Herman four days per diem and mileage

Mr Cochran said he did not want to vote so pitiful a sum as four day's per diem

Mr Cornelius—Is this to show the generosity of a Democrat? It is buncombe! The President will certify to the time Mr Herman occupied a seat and he will draw pay without this resolution

Mr Holtzclaw—In contested cases it has been usual to pay mileage without a resolution I shall vote no

Mr Mosher said he did not expect to get a reputation from the other side for generosity He had introduced this resolution at the special request of Mr Herman and because it was proper as Senator from Douglas county that the resolution should emanate from him Lost—ayes, 9 noes 11

Mr Hendershott gave notice of a bill to abolish the office of Adjutant General and Mr Mosher to annul the law regulating the assessment and collection of taxes

The President read an invitation from the ladies of the M E Church to attend a sociable at Mr Holman's residence to which all were invited

Mr President The seat of Mr Herman having been vacated, I appoint Mr Mosher in his stead on all the standing committees of the Senate

On motion the Senate adjourned until 2 P M

Afternoon Session

Salem Friday Sept 16 1870

President Fay called the Senate to order at 2 P M The Roll was called and all the members were recorded as present except Mr Pershbaker who is unwell

Senator Stout was present for the first time to the session not having been able to leave his room for several days past

Mr Burch gave notice of a bill to construct a canal and lock around the falls of the Willamette also a bill to consolidate the offices of the Clerk of the Supreme Court librarian and reporter

Mr Mosher gave notice of a bill to amend the Code of Civil Procedure

Mr Trevitt gave notice of a bill to provide for the construction of a road up the south bank of the Columbia river from near the mouth of Sandy in Multnomah county to Dalles city in Wasco county

Mr Cornelius introduced a joint resolution that the Secretary of State be requested to furnish the Sergeant at Arms with a copy of the Code and Session Laws of 65 66 for each of the officers of the two Houses, and also one copy for the Supreme Judges respectively Adopted—19 ayes noes none

Mr Cornelius introduced a joint resolution for the appointment of a Committee on Joint Rules, to consist of two members of the Senate and three of the House Adopted—ayes 20, noes none

After a fifteen minutes session the Senate adjourned until 10 o'clock in the forenoon to morrow

HOUSE—Morning Session

Salem Friday September 16th 1870

The House was called to order at 10 o'clock A M by the Speaker all the members being present except Mr Dunbar

The Speaker—The chair is informed by the Sergeant at Arms that he has been unable to procure the services of a Chaplain this morning

The Journal of yesterday was read corrected and approved

COMMITTEE ON PRINTING

Mr McLain from the special committee to report on amendment to the Rules submitted a report recommending the adoption of the Rules of the last House, with an amendment to Rule eight providing that the Committee on Elections and on Commerce be increased from three to five members and also to Rule forty three providing that one hundred copies of every bill introduced shall be printed unless otherwise ordered by the House

Mr [illegible] moved to adopt the report

Mr Whiteaker objected to the latter amendment on the ground that it would probably result in running up a large bill against the State for printing short or worthless bills many of which [illegible] may be He moved to strike out that part of the report

Mr [illegible] thought the rule would save money [illegible] in order to prevent the unnecessary printing of bills

Mr Hare agreed with Mr Whiteaker believing the old rule sufficient

Mr Grant stated that at the last session a single member of the House had cost the State $[illegible]0 for printing bills only three or five at most of which were passed He opposed any change in Rule [illegible]

Mr Whiteaker's motion prevailed

Mr [illegible] asked for information as to what effect the adoption of the report would have upon the rules

Mr Whiteaker It will simply increase the committees on Elections and Commerce to five members each

The report of the committee was adopted

BILLS

Mr [illegible] gave notice of a bill to regulate the fees and salaries of officers of Wasco and Umatilla counties

Mr Whiteaker offered a resolution to furnish each of the officers of the House with the same amount of books and stationery as allowed the members The resolution was adopted

Mr [illegible] gave notice of a general fees and salary bill for the county officers [illegible]

Mr Burnett gave notice of a bill to compel butchers to retain the hides of all cattle slaughtered by them for a certain length of time for public inspection before they dispose of the same

Mr Amis introduced a bill entitled An Act to amend Section 9 of Chapter 2 of the General Laws exempting $100 of personal property from taxation for each member of a family including each child ward old and infirm persons unable to labor but excluding aliens Ordered printed

Mr Caldwell gave notice of a bill entitled an act relating to toll bridges and ferries

Mr Alexander gave notice of a bill relating to the construction of a canal and lock for the passage of boats on the falls of the Willamette

Mr Savage offered a resolution for the appointment of an additional page [illegible] messenger The resolution was lost

The Speaker announced as the additional members of the [illegible] Committee Messrs Whiteaker and Mills

At 11 the House adjourned

FROM THE STATE CAPITAL

[illegible]

Salem Thursday Sept 15 1870

[illegible]

In my letter of last evening I did not quite finish the matter of the [illegible] honor of Gov Grover I believe I stated that [illegible] in close where so that he lost his share of the [illegible] and drink He was however alluded to by the Governor in such terms and in such connection as were calculated to the last degree calling out from the audience the most emphatic applause The Gov said in substance Col Kelly is not here but I can say what I know will meet with his unqualified approval—Gentlemen come and take a drink." This was cheered immensely but whether the applause was given merely to Grover Col Kelly or the invitation to drink I cannot undertake to say The mention of Col Kelly in such a connection left the inference on the minds of some at least of the hearers that Mr Grover's idea of Col Kelly's speech, if present, would amount to Gentlemen come and take a drink It may however have been an inspiration of Gov Grover's own without being connected at all with any idea of Col Kelly, except his absence But whether meant kindly or not what a spectacle The Governor of a State standing before a promiscuous audience in the street, and in Bacchanalian tone of voice, inviting a promiscuous rabble to come and take a drink It is doubtful if Oregon ever had a Governor before so wanting in dignity or who would have consented to set such an example before his people, with the eyes of hundreds from all parts of the State upon him

AS THEIR GREAT LIGHT REFUSES TO SHINE

Another notable feature of the jubilee was the fact that Ben Hayden was not present I am told that immediately after the adjournment of the House Ben was taken with a yearning to visit his family over in Polk I suppose the fact is Ben didn't want to give aid and comfort to the Governor by assisting at the glorification, and that his family was made glad because Ben had no anxiety to make Grover glad You know their relations are not so cordial as to subject Ben to the chance of being mistaken for a second edition of the historic Damon and Grover for Pythias

THE SENATE HOLDS AN ELECTION

The Senate Committee on Elections to whom was referred the contested case between Messrs Herman and Mosher reported this afternoon—Messrs Hendershott and Holtzclaw joining in a majority report to the effect that Herman was ineligible at the date of his election and still remains so by virtue of holding the lucrative office of Deputy Collector of Revenue and that Mr Mosher having received a majority of the votes cast for Senator at the last general election was entitled to the seat Mr Cornelius made a minority report setting forth that the office held by Mr Herman was not a lucrative office such as is contemplated by the Constitution and that therefore the holding of it did not work a disqualification, etc The first question taken was on his motion to adopt the minority report which was lost by a strict party vote—eight Republicans voting aye and twelve Democrats voting nay Judge Stout absent Herman not voting I have not room here of course to give a synopsis of either Mr Herman's or Mr Mosher's speech Mr Herman placed his right to his seat upon strictly legal grounds citing the Constitution and laws to show that there was no vacancy to be filled that no judicial or other declaration of a vacancy had ever been made that there was no notice as required by law given of an election for Senator in his district that therefore the so called election of Mr Mosher was irregular unlawful and void that Mosher gained no right to the office by reason of obtaining votes for Senator He cited several cases in point where it had been judicially decided that a deputy not holding by appointment from the President the head of a department or a Judicial Court is not an officer under the United States that such deputy is merely an employee or agent He showed that in his case he was but an occasional deputy or employee of the Collector appointed by him amendable to him paid by him out of his private salary that the Collector was the responsible officer etc etc The argument is conceded even by the Democrats to have been an able one

Mr Mosher cited some decisions to show that notice is not an essential prerequisite of an election that the voice of the people is the supreme law He read a letter from Commissioner Delano who cited some laws which designate deputy collectors as officers and his own statement that it had been the practice of his office to consider deputy collectors as officers of the United States though there had been no judicial decision and there is a doubt as to the correctness of the practice He also read a private letter written by Senator Williams in which was expressed a grave doubt whether Mr Herman could hold the two offices of Deputy Collector and State Senator These and a receipt signed by Mr Herman as Deputy Collector constituted Mr Mosher's case He evidently was so confident of gaining the seat as to be averse to making an effort at an elaborate argument and he only spoke at all for decency's sake The votes taken on the minority report and a motion by Mr Cornelius to amend the majority report showed that the vote had already been crystalized even before the argument and that Mr Mosher was fixed " The final vote on the adoption of the majority report was after all a sort of sneak vote On the others, Mr Cornelius had succeeded in getting the yeas and nays called but on the last the question was put in the affirmative and when the negative vote was called, Mr Cornelius demanded the yeas and nays The President said [illegible] You are too late and so the names of the voters to adopt the majority report are not recorded It was evident the Senators did not desire to have their names appear against them after having exercised such an act purely of [illegible] against [illegible] I believe I am just in saying that there was not a vote given to oust Herman and seat Mosher which was not given on strictly partisan grounds It was very much like setting aside a vote by the people and holding one in the Senate chamber There are to be two more elections Strahan will be elected to the vacancy in the Benton District and Newby to fill a vacancy in the Yamhill District The unimportant fact that Witham was elected by the people of Benton county and Watts by the people of Yamhill will not be considered at all in the way of the proceeding The contests or rather elections in the House will be hurried up and will probably go off in similar manner In the case of Dunbar of Marion though there is no contest and Dearborn having failed to apply for the situation an inquiry has been ordered as to Dunbar's right to hold the seat This indicates that the Democrats will not be satisfied with a decent majority but will make a clean sweep The tenure of Republican seats this year is very frail

A FLANK MOVEMENT ON HON [illegible]

Mr Amis has introduced a bill in the House to establish caste It provides that persons in this State shall wear a cue of greater length than six inches or shave the head without having first procured and paid for a license This way of abolishing the Chinaman has at least the merit of novelty The chief difficulty to be apprehended [illegible] of the law is the [illegible] courts [illegible] into a terrible tangle as to what under our bulwark of liberty constitutes a cue I have heard it suggested that the provision against shaving the head is a wickedly contrived thrust at Jo Smith who as current report hath it, keeps his intellectual front "set up" an inch or two by the Celestially heathenish practice of shaving the head If this bill be passed—and it seems to come within the limit of the Governor's recommendation—that front of Jose of Joseph's will have to come down or pay license How it will affect the other Chinamen is a subject upon which I do not care to speculate as I am not acquainted with them.

JOAB PREACHETH A LITTLE PREACH

Rev Joab Powell from the classic Forks, made his appearance in the city last evening and this morning by invitation he opened the Senate and afterward the House with prayer I suspect that the reverend wag of the Senate sent for him

At the adjournment of the Senate this afternoon the President made the following somewhat queer announcement Rev Joab Powell will preach to evening at the Opera House, and an informal caucus of the Democratic members of the Senate will be held immediately after the conclusion of the services Well, Joab preached, had a large audience and was applauded to the echo by stamping and shouts and laughter What the Democratic caucus was held for, is only matter for conjecture—probably however, to come and take a drink A similar announcement in regard to preachment and caucus was made in the House at the adjournment

Gov Grover's Inaugural Labor

In that [illegible] in which Gov Grover treats of the Chinese in his inaugural address he cited the ninth section of the first article of the Constitution of the United States to prove that the States have heretofore held the right to admit or exclude such persons (foreigners) as they should deem proper. The point he was seeking to make was that the Burlingame treaty has taken away this right from the States with respect to the Chinaman. This is an extraordinary argument. The part of the Constitution referred to reads as follows

The migration or importation of such persons as any of the States now existing shall think proper to admit shall not be prohibited by Congress prior to the year 1808

Here says Gov Grover is proof that the States can exclude any class of foreigners, for inasmuch as Congress was expressly forbidden to prohibit the migration or importation of any class of persons that the States might think proper to admit prior to the year 1808 it follows that the States had full control over the subject of foreign intercourse. Therefore they may exclude at their option the people of any other country and this right to exclude Chinese rested with the States until it was taken away by the Burlingame treaty.

Is it possible that there is any man who does not see the utter fallacy of this argument? It proves just the opposite of what Gov Grover asserts and wishes to prove by it. The clause cited as all know was inserted in the Constitution in order to allow the continuance of the slave trade till 1808. Congress was specially inhibited by it from stopping the importation of slaves by the States until that time. But the insertion of this clause at the demand of the slave traders would prove if such proof were needed that without it under the Constitution Congress would have had power to stop the transportation of slaves. Thus it is shown clearly enough though by indirection that the general power over the whole subject of immigration and foreign intercourse is conferred on Congress by the Constitution, and that the clause cited by Gov Grover was inserted for the purpose of limiting that power for twenty years, so that those interested in the propagation of slavery and in stealing and selling men and women for gain, might continue their traffic for that period. If a State can exclude a foreign people it can stop all commercial intercourse with that people and thus annul one of the great powers of the General Government viz The power to regulate commerce.

When Gov Grover says "the States now hold the right to admit or exclude such foreign powers as they may chose to admit or exclude, subject only to the treaty making power," and that, "were it not for the Burlingame treaty this State could shut out the Chinese, he is totally in error as a study of the opinions of the Supreme Court of the United States will show him. If he had said that the States have a right to admit or exclude foreigners, subject only to the treaty making power and the Constitution of the United States, he would have been correct. But this would be exactly equivalent to saying that the States do not hold the right to meddle with the matter at all. The States were prohibited by the Constitution from controlling this subject long enough before the Burlingame treaty ever gave demagogues the political opportunity which Gov Grover is trying to make so much of.

Col Kelly's Claim

The Albany Democrat comes out positively for Col Kelly for United States Senator and tells all competitors to stand back. It says

If there is virtue in constant fealty and devotion to a cause and if self sacrifice and unremitting labor for the success of a party are entitled to a measure of reward, then no man in Oregon has greater claims upon the support of its Democratic voters than has Col Kelly

This is not our fight nevertheless we are compelled to pronounce the above very good in view of the fact that it was Col Kelly who split the Democratic party of Oregon in twain in 1858, who ran as a bolting candidate for Congress in that year and whose action in dividing the party has kept it out of power during all the long weary years from that time till its victory in the recent election. And it would be out of power still had Col Kelly gone through the State making at all points the same speech he made here. The response to his effort in this county was four hundred Republican majority. Oh yes! Kelly has "claims on Democratic voters." However, if they can see it we are content.

The terms of union proposed to British Columbia by the Dominion of Canada are not altogether satisfactory to the Victoria Standard. That paper says the subsidies of $113 000 per annum are the real price at which the Colony is to be transferred to Canada. Even if this be all, it is not easy to see what advantage Canada is to derive from the investment. The Standard however holds that the grant of lands for the great railway is worth much more than the railway will cost (which we think doubtful) and argues that British Columbia will therefore owe no obligation to Canada for building it. The subsidy of $100,000 per annum which is to be paid perpetually to British Columbia for cession of these lands the Standard thinks of little consequence compared with their future value. The belt of lands granted is forty miles wide.

The argument of Col Cornelius in the minority report in the case of Senator Herman of Douglas county is close and unanswerable. But though none of the Democratic Senators could answer Col Cornelius they could and did vote Mr Herman out because they had the members to do it. No one can show that Mr. Mosher has a shadow of legal right to the seat. The majority of the Committee do not attempt to show it. They simply reported that Mr Herman should go out and Mr Mosher should come in. It is now an established doctrine that if any Democrat wants a seat in the Legislature to which a Republican has been elected all he has to do is to go to the Capital and take it.

Both Gov Woods and Gov Grover have recommended the creation of a separate Supreme Court. Their suggestions however are premature inasmuch as there can be no pretense that the State has the 100,000 inhabitants required by the Constitution. The whole cannot be much above 90,000. If it were anything above 100 000 the Legislature might probably call it 200 000 and go ahead but as it is the proceeding would look too barefaced, that is if any attempt were made to reconcile it with the Constitution. If however the creation of a separate Supreme Court has been resolved on let the Legislature go ahead but let there be no ridiculous pretense that the Constitution sanctions it.

Democratic Artifice

[illegible] the New York World and Chicago Times [illegible] that the last national platform of the Democratic party [illegible] spoken [illegible] to meet [illegible] the Times speaking of the Seymour and Blair platform under [illegible] lawless [illegible] failures of the past [illegible]

It is not always [illegible] for the party to state [illegible] the foundation on which a political party [illegible]

With [illegible] that [illegible] the last national campaign to declare that the party would [illegible] that they intend [illegible] overthrow reconstruction to form a political alliance with defeated rebels [illegible] establish the rules that were overthrown in the war to repudiate the national debt and to pay the people of the South for their slaves. These were really the aims of the Democracy but as the Times thinks it was [illegible] to say so. Why asks that paper [illegible] the whole truth [illegible] real intentions, secure a victory first and enforce our policy afterwards. This reasoning [illegible] interesting question with reference to the next national Democratic platform. What will it contain? Will it be as outspoken as Gov Grover's inaugural or will it keep dark about the real intentions of the party and try to gain a victory by deceiving the country?

Very much like the reasoning of the Chicago Times is that of the New York World. [illegible] that in the last two Presidential elections the Democratic party has been defeated by making bad platforms and proceeds to illustrate thus

The anti war plank of the platform of 1864 was felt to be so damaging that the candidate virtually abjured it in his letter accepting the nomination. There was a self stultifying incongruity in nominating a distinguished and popular General on an anti war platform. In 1868 the platform and the candidate were also out of harmony. Governor Seymour had within the preceding three months made vigorous speeches against the greenback theory and yet he was placed on a platform endorsing it. The platform was in direct collision with the avowed opinions of the candidate. But a more fundamental objection to it was that it was too narrow for any party to stand on that expected within the ensuing five months to be a majority. There was at that time no majority that accepted its principles and no probability that such a majority could be created previous to the election

This is coming to the confessional in good style. It will be seen that there is no pretence that the platform in either case was not in accord with the views and demands of the party. The simple fact was that the platforms were constructed to meet the ideas and purposes of the party and candidates were selected who it was supposed would be able to win votes from the other side. In both cases the party got the platform and the politicians or policy men the candidate. But hereafter if such journals as the Times and World can bring it about the platforms shall be more adroit that is, they shall not announce the intentions of the party. The first thing to do is to get into power. Then the party can throw off the mask and proclaim its real purposes. The journals above named virtually argue that their party never can win by going to the people on the real issues it desires to make. That course has been tried and proven a failure and hereafter as the Times expresses it it will not be deemed politic to tell the whole truth.

No war that ever took place in Europe has been watched in America with an interest so general and so intense as the war now going on. The main reason of this lies in the fact that the cable has practically brought the war very near to us. Former wars in Europe it has been well said have seemed to us dim and remote but the cable has made this later shock of arms clear and close to us and made the interest in it a contemporaneous and universal interest instead of the historical and partial interest which alone all former European wars were able to excite in American readers.

MARYSVILLE Sept 16.—An important case was tried before the Probate Court to day. Jane Smith and child of England, set up a claim to the estate of Thomas A Smith of Marysville claiming the estate against the children by a subsequent marriage. Petitioner claims that Smith deserted her in England and committed bigamy in Lowell Mass coming with his second wife to California. The question is purely one of identity, as to whether it was the same Smith who married both women. The evidence is very contradictory. The property is worth about fifteen thousand dollars part of it is a two story brick building on Second street next to the Post Office. The case attracts much attention, more particularly among lawyers

Ordinance No 852

AN ORDINANCE ESTABLISHING A DAY AND Night Police and defining the duties and powers of Police Officers in the city of Portland

The city of Portland does ordain as follows

Section 1 The regular police force of the city of Portland in addition to the Marshal shall be seven Deputy Marshals but the Marshal may have an auxiliary and additional police force as hereinafter provided. The Deputy Marshals shall be appointed by the Marshal subject to the approval of the Mayor. The Marshal may revoke such appointments at pleasure. In case of negligence drunkenness unnecessary cruelty neglect or misfeasance in office on the part of any Deputy Marshal the Marshal shall remove such Deputy at once and if the Marshal neglect or refuse to do so the Mayor shall have power to remove the offending Deputy and he shall report the cause of such removal in writing to the Common Council at the next regular meeting thereof.

Sec 2 The Marshal shall be the chief of police of the city of Portland. He must at all times keep a vigilant control over the peace and quiet of the city. He must make or cause to be made arrests with or without warrant [illegible] within the city and shall have all the powers of a sheriff as a peace officer which is possessed by peace officers according to the laws of the State. He shall with the assistance of the Deputy Marshals serve all processes issued out of the Recorder's Court [illegible] criminal cases under the laws of the State [illegible] of Portland

Sec 3 The Marshal shall be the keeper of the city jail. He shall receive and take charge of all prisoners and keep them in accordance with the judgment of the Recorder's Court [illegible] after [illegible] provided by ordinance and it shall be the duty of the Marshal to see that the city jail is kept cleanly and that the prisoners are treated humanely and provided with wholesome food while in his custody. He may in the absence of the Recorder [illegible] within the city jail any person arrested for breach of the peace or other offence against the city and he may keep in the jail persons who are drunk or otherwise unfit to appear for trial but shall in all cases bring such persons before the Recorder for trial without unnecessary delay and he shall use the city jail for no other purpose without the consent of the Mayor

Sec 4 The Marshal shall see that all persons who violate city ordinances are prosecuted by the proper city authorities and shall inform the city attorney of all the facts within his knowledge concerning the same before said person or persons are brought to trial

Sec 5 The Marshal shall exercise a general superintendence over the Police force of the City both day and night and shall make general rules for their government which rules shall assign to each Deputy Marshal or other public officer his time and place to be on duty and such other details as he may deem proper. Such rules shall be subject to the approval of the Mayor. The Marshal shall attend in person or by one of more deputies, each and every session of the Recorder's Court and shall have his office in the Recorder's Court Room where he or one or more of his deputies can be found at any time. The Marshal shall also attend in person regularly at the meetings of the Common Council and shall serve all processes issued by authority of the Mayor or President of the Common Council

Sec 6 The Marshal shall collect all delinquent taxes and licenses and assessments when required by warrant and must pay the same to the Treasurer monthly

Sec 7 The Marshal shall make out and deliver to the Auditor and Clerk on or before the third day of each month a statement under oath showing the whole number of arrests made in the City by him during the preceding month. The name of each person arrested

For what offense arrested

By whom arrested

The number of convictions for violation of City Ordinances. The names of persons and length of time confined in the City Jail after judgment. The cost of boarding the same together with the statement of the ability or inability of such person to perform manual labor

The number of prisoners who performed labor during the month as contemplated by Ordinance No 693 and the name of each. And he shall keep a duplicate of said report in a book to be provided for that purpose which shall be at all times open to inspection

Sec 8 The Marshal shall also make a like statement monthly of the costs and fees earned by him for any police officer in all actions in the Recorder's Court during the preceding month showing the amount of costs paid by the defendants in each case, the amount unpaid and to what [illegible] such unpaid costs and fees are due

Sec 9 It shall be the duty of the Marshal when directed by the city [illegible] to detail [illegible]

[illegible]

PUBLIC LIBRARIES.—The following remarks from the [illegible] are commendable. Quite a large proportion of the population of Portland are single men without family or social ties—many of them young and comparatively strangers—and we especially call the attention of this class to the fact that there are several public libraries [illegible] in this city which are well [illegible] comfortable and quiet, and in the [illegible] winter well warmed where one can spend a pleasant evening free from evil influences. [illegible]

ASTORIA ITEMS.—From Astoria under date of the 14th we have the following

The weather here for two days has been splendid

The barkentine J. A. Falkinburg arrived this afternoon 15 days from Honolulu, making the round trip from Astoria and back in 53 days with a full cargo of sugar on her return trip. It is quite probable that the Captain sails his vessel tights

There are about forty men at work on the Custom House and the quarry together. They are driving the work very rapidly

The schooner [illegible] arrived at noonday from Alaska the vessel that was seized by the Collector

The surveying party are getting along finely

The Pilot Commissioners are all here getting their report ready for the Legislature

From correct reports there has been 296 000 [illegible] passed through the Custom House from Sept 1868 to Sep 1870 a large increase over the two previous years

OREGON CITY SEMINARY.—Prof J D Robb late of Astoria and for many years Principal of the Dalles Public School has been appointed by the Board of Trustees in Oregon City to the position of Principal in the Seminary at that place—made vacant by the resignation of Prof E D Pope. Prof Robb will find Oregon City a desirable place of residence. He will also find the Seminary in an advanced state seldom equaled by any school on the Pacific slope through the efforts of Prof Pope and while people there generally feel that they will miss Prof Pope from the school we feel a confidence that his successor will maintain the standing of the Seminary

THE PRIZE VESSEL.—The vessel Louisa Simpson in charge of Prize Master Lieutenant Mason and two other offices from the military of Alaska arrived here last evening in tow of the steamer [illegible] and lies at anchor off the foot of Morrison street. She is a vessel of 100 tons Oregon built under command of Capt Raven. She is here for the purpose of standing a trial in the United States Courts for smuggling whisky into Alaska [illegible]

BOOT AND SHOE TRADE.—The boot and shoe trade of the city is in a most flourishing condition. Dealers in that line are liberal and their advertisements although extensive as may be seen by reference to our columns but partially portray the business being done. Mr J S Kast has lately purchased the interest of his partner Mr Cahalin in the long established Philadelphia Boot and Shoe Stores 112 Front street and 131 First street [illegible] announces better goods at lower prices than can be had elsewhere. See advertisement

ADMITTED.—On Wednesday last Mr J J Henderson of this city was admitted to practice as an attorney in the Supreme Court of the State of Oregon [illegible] upon a certificate from the Supreme Court of the State of New York. Mr Henderson is a first class gentleman, and we heartily wish him success in his new sphere. [illegible]

[illegible]

LEGISLATIVE.—The afternoon reports are now received by Beck & Waldman the first of which appears in another place to day uction and Commission.

SATURDAY MORNING SEPT 1 1870

CITY.

CHURCH MATTERS.—The new M E Church edifice is now enclosed by a fine fence, the spire stripped of its scaffolding and the outside work rapidly approaching completion. Services at the usual hours to-morrow.

Afternoon services to-morrow at the M E Hall. At the M. E. Zion church to-morrow evening at 7 o'clock Rev Dr Dickson will preach.

A Sunday School Concert by the scholars of the Lutheran Sunday School will be given at their church to-morrow evening, corner of Fifth and Taylor streets, at which time a number of new Sunday School songs will be sung—among them "The Golden Nine"

The frame of the new Congregational church at the corner of Jefferson and Second streets has been raised. The work of building this edifice is progressing very satisfactorily. Congregational services will be held to-morrow at the old church building as usual. Alluding to this church the Herald says: "The point of the spire will be 180 feet from the ground. When this edifice is finished, Portland will have twelve church buildings, all of them substantial and neat, many of them elegant—and eleven schools and academies. The schools are prosperous and the churches [illegible] are ever widening their fields of usefulness and extending the spheres of their influence. What better testimony can be sent abroad [illegible] the religious and enlightened character and [illegible] of our people. Every spire piercing [illegible] the air in token of love and reverence for Him whose life was cruelly taken on Calvary, [illegible] glad-ringing bell that calls buoyant youth [illegible] and labor for mental culture and advancement, are hopeful signs and guaranties of future order, security, peace and harmony of [illegible] of Portland"

The Sentinel says: "Rev F X Weninger S J, arrived here from the Sound on last Monday evening and departed again for Jacksonville on Tuesday morning. This zealous missionary will give missions at Jacksonville, Roseburg and [illegible]. Father Weninger assured us that he will go wherever it is thought that he can bring one lost soul back to salvation. His energy and zeal are bountifully repaid by the complete success he gains everywhere"

PORTLAND LIBRARIES.—The following remarks from the Advocate are commendable: "Quite a large proportion of the population of Portland are single men without family or social ties—most of them young and comparative strangers—and we especially call the attention of this class to the fact that there are several public libraries and reading rooms in this city which are well lighted, clean, comfortable and quiet, and in the winter well warmed, where one can spend a pleasant evening, free from evil influences. To a young man in a strange city the few hours between supper and bedtime are fraught with more danger than all the hours of the day. The evening brings the child to its mother's arms, the husband and father to his family, the horse to his stall, [illegible] to the youth who stands 'homeless among a thousand homes' the approach of night brings with it a feeling of restlessness and loneliness, which comes down over the spirit as does the [illegible] over the earth, and the endeavor to get rid of this depression often leads him into the billiard or drinking saloon, and these are but the stepping-stones to worse excesses. To all in Portland so circumstanced, we would say, good books are the friends of the friendless, and a reading room is the home of the homeless"

ASTORIA ITEMS.—From Astoria, under date of the 10th, we have the following:

The weather here for two days has been splendid.

The barkentine Jane A. Falkinburg arrived [illegible], 15 days from Honolulu, making the round trip from Astoria and back in 53 days, with a full cargo of sugar on her return trip. It is quite probable that the Captain sails his vessel [illegible].

There are about forty men at work on the Custom House and in the quarry, together. They are pushing the work very rapidly.

The [illegible] Louisa arrived at noonday from [illegible] the vessel that was seized by the Col[illegible].

The surveying party are getting along finely.

The Pilot Commissioners are all here getting [illegible] for the Legislature.

[illegible] reports, there has been 298 000 [illegible] through the Custom House from [illegible] to Sept. 1870, a large increase over [illegible] previous years.

OREGON CITY SEMINARY.—Prof. J D Robb, [illegible] and for many years Principal of the Dalles Public School, has been appointed by the Board of Councilmen at Oregon City to the office of Principal in the Seminary at that [illegible], vacant by the resignation of Prof. [illegible] Pope. Prof. Robb will find Oregon City a [illegible] place of residence. He will also find [illegible] in advanced state seldom equaled by any inland city on the Pacific slope, through the efforts of Prof. Pope, and while people there [illegible] feel that they will miss Prof. Pope from the school, we feel a confidence that his successor will maintain the standing of the Seminary.

THE PRIZE VESSEL.—The vessel Louisa Simpson, in charge of Prize Master Lieutenant Mason and two other officers from the military of Alaska, arrived here last evening in tow of the steamer Rosa Pomp, and lies at anchor off the foot of [illegible] street. She is a vessel of 100 tons, [illegible] built, under command of Capt. Haven, [illegible] here for the purpose of standing a trial in the United States Courts for smuggling whisky [illegible], we understand. There are now in this [illegible] foreign ships and five which carry the flag of the United States, aggregating a tonnage of not less than 8 000 tons.

BOOT AND SHOE TRADE.—The boot and shoe trade of this city is in a most flourishing condition. Dealers in that line are liberal, and their [illegible], although extensive, as may be seen by reference to our columns, but partially supply the business being done. Mr J S Kast has lately purchased the interest of his partner, [illegible], in the long established Philadelphia Boot and Shoe Stores, 112 Front street and 131 First street, and to-day announces better goods at [illegible] than can be had elsewhere. See ad.

ADMITTED.—On Wednesday last Mr J J [illegible], of this city was admitted to practice as an attorney in the Supreme Court of the State of Oregon, by motion upon a certificate from the Supreme Court of the State of New York. Mr [illegible] is a first class gentleman and we [illegible] with him success in his new sphere. [illegible] because of his having abandoned the [illegible] stick and frame in a printing office [illegible] Storey and Chitty.

LIBERAL CONTRIBUTIONS.—Mayor Goldsmith [illegible] by the steamship California on Thursday, to Herr Von Sydow, President of the German National Sanitary Committee at Berlin $1 [illegible], contributed by citizens of Portland for the benefit of the sick and disabled soldiers of the German and Prussian armies. Yesterday $2[illegible] was raised from citizens of Oregon City, which will be forwarded for like purposes.

NORTHERN PACIFIC RAILROAD.—The Northern Pacific Railroad Company have fitted up an office in this city, in the rooms formerly occupied by [illegible] J S. Rankin, in Cree's building, corner of [illegible] and Front streets. The Company have filed with the Secretary of the Interior their first [illegible] upon their franchise lands and other property, for $5,000 000 to secure the issue of a corresponding amount of bonds.

OPENING NIGHT.—The box office at the Oro Fino Theater will be opened at 11 o'clock A M to-day for the accommodation of those who desire to select seats. The Theater will be crowded to-night, and early application should be made. The bill is one of the finest ever offered here, and the first appearance of Miss Hinckley is also looked forward to with much interest.

POLICE COURT.—The usual batch of drunks were disposed of by the Recorder yesterday. A Chinaman by the name of Ho O Wa, who had been caught napping in a Celestial den on Taylor street, while under the influence of opium and been robbed of his watch and coin, was seeking justice. He had found his watch and got it, but wanted something more.

OVERLAND CIRCUS.—We presume that the Circus Company will occupy their old ground at the corner of Fourth and Pine streets. The afternoon exhibition will be held at 2½ o'clock, this evening at 8 o'clock. This will positively be the last opportunity to witness the astonishing and [illegible] feats of this Company in Portland.

LEGISLATIVE.—The afternoon reports are now [illegible] by Beck & Waldman, the first of which appears in another place to-day.

WAR MISCELLANY

Bismarck is said to have declared, that in order to punish the French he would compel them to keep Napoleon III on the throne in case the Prussians should win.

The label with the name of every soldier which is attached to the coat of every German soldier so that he may be recognized in case of death, is of tin and not of parchment, which would soon be destroyed by perspiration.

The late Emperor Napoleon wrote to King William: "As I cannot die at the head of my army I surrender myself to your majesty." If the accounts of the battle about Sedan are correct there was as good an opportunity for death as occurs in a generation. We are afraid the last of the Napoleons was not much inclined to do any dying on his own account.

A correspondent writes: "McMahon had already lost the battle. 'We must charge again, we must keep charging mes enfants,' said the Duke turning to the Colonel and the few around him. The Colonel touching his hat said 'Marshal, in the state in which we are, to charge is to certain death.' McMahon, with a slight shrug of his shoulders, answered low yet audibly: 'What matters, Colonel, but let us embrace each other first.' Not another word. The Marshal waved his hand, the Colonel gave the command and onward they thundered once, then forming again for a second time, again for the last. Out of that magnificent array, there were but 105 men in the last charge; ninety-seven went down wounded or killed, eight remained, and of those eight one tells the story."

THE TERRITORIES

A horse race came off a few days ago at Deer Lodge, Montana, stakes $2 000 a side. Bets in all amounted to $18 000, and it was a scrub race at that.

The progress of civilization in our remote Territories is shown by the fact that a contract has been awarded for the construction of a court house in Missoula county, Montana, to cost nearly $20,000.

Several chambers of the Bellingham Bay coal mine are again on fire and have had to be closed up to keep the air out. The company are only taking out about 50 tons of coal per day. There is about 400 tons at the mouth of the pit.

Miss Fannie Campbell, of Gallatin City, Montana, has filed her declaration claiming 160 acres of the public domain, under the pre-emption laws of the United States, as a citizen thereof. An event well worthy of record. Miss Campbell believes in woman's rights.

Iowa under Republican rule has paid all her public debt, and has a large surplus. Indiana has paid the last dollar she owed and her bonds are no longer the sport of Wall street stock jobbers. Illinois has steadily reduced her indebtedness, and has at easy command the means to extinguish it, and now comes Michigan which has reduced her indebtedness about two millions in the past eighteen months. In the same time President Grant's administration has paid about $160,000,000 of the National debt, and reduced taxation about eighty millions.

The Summer is past and Autumn is here,
The finest season throughout the whole year;
But the days grow cool and all must prepare
For warmer Clothing in Winter to wear.
Well KOHN & FISHEL of Clothing renown
Have the best supply ever brought to town.
They have all sorts of coats and pants that will match,
That will last a whole year and not need a patch.
There are socks, vests and shirts and a thousand things more
Which they offer you cheaper than ever before.
You all need the clothes and they need the tin,
Then get a new suit and let Winter go in.

AFTERNOON SESSION.—The Bill of Beck & Waldman passed the Senate and will go through every house that they have the best stock of Clothing and Gents Furnishing Goods which will be sold cheaper than that of any other house. Call and judge for yourself.

Mrs Crocker told me only a few days ago that she was quite sick and not able to be about. Kate—Oh yes, she has been quite sick, but the day after Mrs C was here ma sent for a bottle of PLANTATION BITTERS and has taken three doses a day since. It worked like a charm, and ma says she is better and stronger than she has been for years. She told me it was the best medicine in the world and wanted me to take some, but I did not like it. I have taken it several times, but it gives me such an appetite that I tell ma her mince pies will not last long. THE OREGON LEGISLATURE

HOUSE—Afternoon Session

The House met at 2 o'clock P M. The Speaker in the chair.

[illegible]

Mr Laughlin offered the following:

Resolved That the standing Committee on Elections to whom was referred the contested election cases from Yamhill and Clackamas counties be and they are hereby empowered to send for persons and papers and documents required [illegible] the proper investigation of such cases.

Mr Laughlin [illegible] the resolution and [illegible]: I am a party interested in one of the cases and as I understand that the Committee on Elections to which the cases are referred is now organized and will meet this evening at [illegible] o'clock, I deem it expedient that there should be some preparation made for bringing evidence before that committee. The Senate has authorized its committee to send for witnesses and papers, and I think it would be but a matter of justice to follow a precedent so manifestly right. I desire that there should be a fair and impartial trial in my case. If I am here without a legal right to hold my seat I do not desire to retain it. In order that the question may be duly investigated and that all the evidence available may be brought before that committee I deem it necessary that this resolution should pass. The notice of contest was not served upon me until the [illegible] of August last. In compliance with the notice I appeared for the purpose of taking testimony and learned that there were about 65 witnesses to be examined and that the parties would proceed from day to day to take the testimony. This would of course require much time. The examination was begun but it went very slowly and only one or two witnesses being examined per day, we soon found out that it would be impossible to get through before the Legislature would meet. Our witnesses were subpoenaed and the opposite parties were generally present to cross examine our witnesses. There were some of their witnesses, six of whom we had no opportunity to cross examine. A number of our witnesses were living in this county and in other counties further away, and it was understood that in all such cases we would be permitted to bring our witnesses before the Legislature. Therefore in order to save time and trouble we made no effort at that time to procure witnesses. For those reasons I would ask that the resolution be accepted. I claim to have received a majority of the votes of Yamhill county and only ask a fair opportunity to sustain myself.

Mr Dorris—I desire to do justice to every member here but at the same time when it appears that a member whose seat is contested makes no effort to procure evidence in support of his claim to a seat I do not feel like permitting a waste of the time of the session by sending off for witnesses. The gentleman from Yamhill, Mr Laughlin, tells us he was present when certain witnesses were examined and that there were other witnesses whom he did not subpoena. He tells us he has taken no steps to procure those witnesses. Let him tell us when it will please him to do so. How long will it take this gentleman to send for their witnesses? Can they get them here in a week, or will it take to the end of the session? Let him inform the Committee on Elections when and how soon he can have those witnesses here. Furthermore, unless the Committee on Elections and the right here proposed to be conferred, I do not think it would be proper to pass the resolution. The committee has as yet made no such request. If the committee demand it I shall vote for it, but I shall oppose any motion of this sort when we are told that the sitting members have made no effort to obtain the testimony now wanted.

Mr Hare—I think the gentleman from Linn (Mr Dorris) entirely misunderstood the remarks of the gentleman from Yamhill (Mr Laughlin). I understood the latter gentleman to say that he has taken part of the testimony in the case and that some of the witnesses [illegible] were not examined with the understanding that they should be called after the beginning of the session. Now he desires to have the privilege of calling these witnesses before the Committee on Elections. If the majority of this House desire and demand that there should be a fair and impartial investigation in these cases I cannot see how they can excuse themselves from conceding the privilege he asked. All that is solicited is a fair and impartial examination of the facts, upon which as members of this House, we must cast our votes. This is not a matter to be decided according to party feeling or party bias. It is one which involves the rights of a constituency to representation upon this floor and should be determined coolly according to the evidence and facts in the case. Gentlemen on the other side of the House say that they wish to do justice. All they desire is a fair investigation. Pray tell me how can there be a fair and impartial investigation without the means of obtaining all the evidence? How can we be just unless we admit all the testimony? It appears to me that every gentleman concerned in this investigation should desire all the information he can get. I think the majority of this floor should vote for the resolution and thus empower the committee to send for persons and papers necessary to enable them to carry out their expressed desire to be impartial. The committee ought to have this authority. The committee will be the executive judge as to the necessity for the attendance of witnesses and surely the House has confidence in its committee.

Mr Helm thought that in all such cases a fair investigation should be had, but did not believe that the delay which the resolution would necessitate would procure the impartial result desired. The sitting members had received three months notice and if they had not availed themselves of this time to procure the necessary testimony attainable, they had slept upon their rights and could reasonably expect the House to wait a time in a further delay which might be no better improved than the previous opportunity. He apprehended that all the testimony bearing upon the case had already been obtained and that the present resolution was made simply for delay. The remarks made by Mr Hare reminded him of the arguments used in 1866 when it was represented as necessary to send away off to Grant county for evidence, but when the time was known to be upon the Clerk's desk. It had been said outside that some of the witnesses are in Salem. If so why hadn't their testimony been already prepared and submitted to the committee? Why had the sitting members been so reckless of their rights? He had been informed that they received three months notice. If so, [illegible] to be set right, but with such an understanding he would vote against the resolution.

Mr Apperson—I desire to make a few remarks relative to the question at issue. I am interested this resolution simply to grant the Committee on Elections the right to examine parties and to secure the necessary evidence to enable it to arrive at a just conclusion upon this subject, so that we may determine whether the sitting members or the contestants were legally entitled as members of this Branch of the Legislature. I for one as a Republican do not wish to see a member retained merely because he is of my party, and I hope gentlemen of the opposite side of the House do not oppose to act from partisan motives now. Gentlemen, there is nothing asked for in this resolution that is not actually necessary to get at all the facts. In this I hope you [illegible].

The Speaker—The gentleman will address the Chair and not the members.

Mr Apperson—I hope that this House will not debar the sitting members—nor the contestants either—for that matter—from anything that will add to the information of members who will have to vote upon the question. The parties desire to send for testimony which is necessary to enable the House to decide who are entitled to seats here. I feel this to be the true principle. Something has been said in reference to what was done in 1868. I do not know whether it was done or not. I was not here. But if the statement be true is that a reason why this House should do injustice now? It has been asked what is to be proved and how long it will take. Such questions should be left with the committee. I hope the resolution will be adopted.

Mr Laughlin—I desire to make explanation as to my former remarks. I do not wish to mislead this House in reference to this matter. It seems that the gentleman from Linn (Mr Dorris) is laboring under a misapprehension. I do not know why it is or how it is that he knows so much about the testimony. He boldly asserts that we had three months notice. All I ask of this House or of the Committee is that they examine the notice which will be brought before the committee for its inspection. The notice was served upon me August 15th—less than a month prior to the commencement of this session. As to the time I do not wish to postpone the settlement of the question any longer than is necessary, and I think that all probability every witness that will be needed before the committee will be ready to testify as soon as the Committee is ready to hear them. There is no witness that cannot be procured within twenty four hours. Their testimony has already been gained for some of them and [illegible] reason why. I ask that this privilege be conferred upon the Committee. It will not delay the contest at all. I think that no gentleman who is willing to have a fair trial can object to the proposition. It is actually right and necessary that the testimony should come before the committee. I do not think that any member will refuse to vote for such an eminently just resolution. We ask that justice be done [illegible] that is all we desire.

Mr Alexander—As Chairman of the Committee on Elections I wish to say that the committee was organized to-day at half past [illegible] o'clock. We have not yet examined any of the evidence that has been submitted, nor have we broken the seal of the papers. If we had, then we do not yet know anything of the testimony. I think it is the committee should go on in the right way. I hope this resolution will not prevail at present, and that we will hear all we can, and if we then find it necessary to send for the witnesses. [illegible] view of the case I move that the resolution be laid on the table for the present.

The motion prevailed by a [illegible] vote—[illegible] ayes to 18 noes.

Sound Logic for the Sick

The invalid has good reasons to exclaim, "save me from my friends." As a general thing each of them will have a different medicine to propose, and if he follows all their prescriptions in turn their well meant advice may be the death of him. The only sensible course in any case of sickness is to resort promptly to a specific which has stood the test of a long and widely extended public experience and obtained on its own merits a sufficient guarantee of its reputation as a standard remedy. This rank among the restoratives of our day belongs of right and beyond all dispute to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Let those who are taking it answer for themselves as to its tonic properties. Can any dyspeptic who has ever used it question its superiority as a stomachic over every other medicine? Can any person of bilious habit who has ever taken it for liver complaint doubt its efficiency? It is believed among the tens of thousands who are now using or have heretofore used it as an alterative and corrective, not one can be found who would exchange it for any other preparation in the known world. For intermittent fevers, nervous debility, constipation, sick headache and all complaints arising from indigestion or impoverishment of the blood, it is the only article which can be conscientiously guaranteed, and no one who is thoroughly acquainted with its virtues will allow [illegible] dealers in worthless [illegible] which they make a larger profit to furnish them in the place of this great vegetable restorative.

THE REVOLUTION IN PARIS

[illegible]

At [illegible] yesterday evening the approaches to the Palace of the Legislature were guarded by detachments of the line and squadrons of gendarmes. The Gardes of Paris and the National Gardes occupied the centre of the Pont de la Concorde and were formed in squares around the centre of the Place de la Concorde. No vehicles were allowed to traverse the place. The Champs Elysees were cleared of all carriages at [illegible] don of National Guard [illegible] at the road.

After a suspension of the sitting of the members persons gradually assembled on the grand staircase within the Legislative Palace and finally came out on the portico waving their hats and shouting "down with the Empire! Viva la Republic!" These shouts were not repressed by the troops. The [illegible] tion was taken up by the crowds [illegible] and other crowds in the Rue Royale and along the Rue Rivoli by the gardens of the Tuilleries. These crowds were in a compact mass from beyond the Obelisk of Luxor quite down to the Rue Royale to the Rue St Honore and down the Rue de Rivoli to the Rue Castiglione.

The shops were all shut and there was no disorder beyond that [illegible] incidental to the presence of so great a multitude. About six o'clock the National Garde and troops of the line nearest the Legislative Palace began to show signs of sympathy with the people. Shakos were raised on bayonets and cries uttered here and there of "Death to the Prussians! Long live France!"

Shortly after a column perhaps a thousand strong of the National Guards fully uniformed, and equipped with a band playing the Marseillaise came down the [illegible] from Pont des Arts and pressed on the Legislative Palace. The gate keepers made [illegible] ance but finally gave way and the people pressing in after the troops the whole [illegible] ure was rapidly filled and the multitude of troops still in front and in perfect order surrounded or were borne up to the front of the vast building. Henri Rochefort came out to meet them, holding out both hands with a cry of "Viva la Republic!" At the same moment half a dozen men burst open from within a window in the facade and began throwing out great clouds of small white papers crying as they did so "these are the votes of the plebiscite" then for the first time went up a great cry from the whole vast crowd of "Down with the Empire." It was taken up with a noise like the roar of waves [illegible] the [illegible] and along the Rue de Rivoli both toward the Louvre and toward the ancient city of Paris, down the great boulevard Sebastopol. A procession of several thousand troops surrounded by crowds of men women, and children, advanced with bands of music.

The procession and its wings filled the enormous streets from front to front on the houses, and on either side and the music bands were accompanied by a whole mass singing the Marseillaise. In all these places the shops were still left open. The police were swept in with the procession or quietly disarmed. I heard of and saw no use of violence, no disorder, no robberies, everywhere deep excitement and the most extraordinary improvised public order. The Imperial arms were torn down from all the public buildings and in one or two cases windows of shops were broken which contained them.

In the Rue Vivienne a well known milliner's establishment was thus menaced but the proprietors came and remonstrated with the leaders, holding up a gold Napoleon and saying "if that passes to-day why should my windows be broken." The men cheered and laughed, the women cried "Viva la Republic," and the crowd passed on. One gate of the Tuilleries on the side of the Seine was burst open and the crowd poured in but forbore to enter the palace on the appearance of Etienne Arago, who came out to meet them, and said:

"Citizens the Empress left Paris at midnight. This palace is the Republic's, is under the protection of liberty and law." The crowd cheered. Immense crowds of the National Gardes were posted at the gates. The Republic was proclaimed immediately afterwards at the Hotel de Ville.

A Consistent Copperhead

[From the Chicago Tribune]

The Chicago Times is severely censured for its warm advocacy of the Bonaparte side of the contest between France and Germany and for the bitter hostility it evinces toward the Germans. But it can hardly be blamed for its course. It certainly is not liable to the charge of inconsistency or ingratitude. Throughout the long struggle between freedom and slavery, Louis Napoleon was a warm sympathizer of the pro-slavery party and when the crisis came he espoused the side of the disunionists giving them all the moral aid the laws of neutrality would permit. He even went so far as to urge the British Government to join him in recognizing the independence of the Confederates. His intention was to intervene in their behalf and to employ the army and navy of France to break up the Union and erect the slave States into a separate government. But the British declined the alliance chiefly on account of the danger of the fire in the rear from Prussia and Russia as they in all probability would have made common cause with the North. Failing to inveigle the British into his scheme of intervention he set on foot a flank movement, by the invasion of Mexico from which he subsequently ingloriously retreated leaving his Austrian tool and dupe to his fate. That he was the friend of the rebel Confederacy was notorious and undisguised. He was as good a "Copperhead" as any in the North and felt toward the Union all the animosity and hatred exhibited by the Copperhead party, of which the Chicago Times was one of the chief organs. It would be base ingratitude, therefore, for the Times or the Copperheads now to turn the cold shoulder toward their ally and sympathizer in the day of his calamity and downfall. A fellow feeling makes them wondrous kind and it is but natural that the Copperheads of America should now offer their reciprocal sympathy to the Copperheads of France who refused to permit Federal bonds to be quoted or sold on the Bourses of Paris and France. It is also natural and in accordance with the fitness of things that the Times and the Copperhead party should dislike the Germans of Europe for loaning the Union $500 000 000 to carry on the war against their Southern Democratic allies and extending their sympathy to the Union cause in every way short of declaring war on the rebels. Nor have the Copperheads any particular appreciation for the Germans in this country who are staunch Unionists wherever found North or South and who sent 200 000 stout and brave volunteers to the field to aid in crushing the rebellion and saving the Union. But there is no love lost in the premises for the Germans despise the Copperheads and vote almost en masse against them. So if there is reciprocity of affection between the American Copperheads and French Caesarism there is also reciprocity of antipathy between the Union loving German Americans and the pro slavery Democracy of America.

Bismarck on Russia

The remarks of Count Bismarck to the correspondent of a London journal in September, 1867 possess considerable interest at present.

Being asked what view he took of the meeting of the French and Austrian Emperors at Salzburg and whether the interferences and inventions of an excited journalism had any effect upon him. "None whatever," the Count answered; "what I have thought and think of the Salzburg affair is embodied in my circular of the 7th September and neither I nor any other reasonable man believed in the possibility of an Austro-French alliance or feared its consequences if effected. [illegible] Austria cannot be the ally of France against Germany, it is the German element in her that is the good cement binding the bricks of her enormous house together. We wish well to Austria and hope to see her reconstruct her might round an intelligent free German nucleus. I, for my part, desire for Prussia nothing better than a firm alliance with the constitutional king of Hungary, who as Emperor of Austria allows the German element in his other provinces full play. If Salzburg had been a French failure as some ill natured people chose to say it was,

The Surrender and Capitulation at Sedan—Dr Russell's Account

[illegible] September [illegible]

Dr Russell writes to the Times from Sedan September [illegible]. When the Emperor who had passed the way [illegible] looked upon the morning he beheld a forest of steel and iron in the valley and on the hill tops. Batteries were posted on every eminence. Cavalry were in all the plains and as far as his sight could reach were hosts of Germans. His decision was taken at last.

Attended by a few of his staff on horseback his Majesty proceeded along the road from Sedan [illegible] Count Bismarck was in his headquarters [illegible] when an officer rode up and announced that the Emperor was coming to meet and see the King. Count Bismarck rose [illegible] to meet the Emperor. He was in time to stop the cortege outside of town. I was away in the field and therefore cannot [illegible] state what occurred. As his Majesty alighted I hear Bismarck uncovered his head and stood with cap in hand and on a sign or request from the Emperor put it on.

The Count replied "Sire I receive your Majesty as I would my own royal sovereign." There happened to be near the place where the interview occurred a few hundred yards outside of the town an humble cottage of a hand loom weaver of whom there are numbers around Sedan. Bismarck led the way and entered the room. It was not inviting. The great Count walked up stairs. The apartments were filled by the hand loom and appliances of the weaver. So he descended and found the Emperor sitting on a stone outside.

Two chairs were brought out of the cottage. The Emperor sat down in one. Bismarck took the other and placed it on his Majesty's left hand side. Officers in attendance on their fallen master lay down at some distance upon a small plat of grass in front of the cottage. The conversation was strange and as Count Bismarck has repeated freely the principal parts of it no doubt it will be soon known and remain forever as history. The great point to be gained was peace but as far as his Majesty was concerned no assurance could be obtained by Bismarck.

The Emperor stated that he had no power and could not negotiate a peace. He could not give orders to the army or Bazaine and his Ministers. The Empress was Regent and on her and her Ministers must devolve the negotiations. So Bismarck thereupon remarked "It is no use to hold any further conversation on political matters with your Majesty and it would be no use to seek the King." The Emperor desired to see the King in person, but Bismarck declared it not possible to accede to his Majesty's wishes till a capitulation had been signed.

Then as the conversation was becoming rather dangerous and as the situation was becoming difficult on both sides he ended, and the interview terminated. The Count went to see the King, the Emperor withdrew to consult his officers.

THE RIVERSIDE

HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION!

EAST PORTLAND OREGON

I AM NOW PREPARED TO RECEIVE SUBSCRIPTIONS [illegible] FOR SHARES [illegible]

[illegible]

RIVERSIDE HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION

This association of which an organization we gave a [illegible] a few days since is now ready to [illegible] As it is one of the [illegible] Homestead Association [illegible] organization of that kind in [illegible] it may be well enough to [illegible] what are its purposes and the manner in which it is proposed to [illegible] operations. The purposes of these Homestead Associations are not at all speculative in the ordinary sense of the word. They are dependent for the profits of their investment upon the natural advance in the value of their lands consequent upon the co-operation of many individual shareholders and the advance in values of all surrounding lands by reason of the expansion of population and demand for room outside of but still near the city. The Riverside Homestead Association has a fraction over one hundred and twenty acres of land situated just south of Brooklyn on the east side of the river, the nearest boundary being about one mile from the ferry landing at East Portland. The tract lies in one strip along the Willamette river half a mile in length and another strip along the Oregon and California railroad half a mile in length, the two strips being connected near the middle by two rows of blocks with a street between them, the whole forming a figure not unlike the letter H. It is divided into 78 blocks 200 feet square with streets running at right angles and [illegible] fractional lots along the river front. The shares number [illegible]00 worth $[illegible]00 per share. It will be seen that a share thus represents nearly a lot with an undivided interest in the 80 fractional lots. The 80 fractional shares reserved [illegible] at the proper time for the benefit of the Association shareholders coming [illegible] the proceeds in proportion to the number of shares held. When all shares are taken and the Association shall determine to do it, the choice of lots and blocks will be put up at auction to the highest bidder, the proceeds of such sales after deducting the original price of shares or lots to be divided equally among the whole number of shares. Thus if a person wants a particular lot or block and is willing to pay $100 or $500 premium (more or less as the case may be) he pays it and takes the lot or block as his individual property, the premium being divided among the whole number of shareholders. It will be seen therefore that everything is co-operative and all interests mutual. No man can make a dollar out of it without also making a dollar for every other equal shareholder. There is no chance for loss unless the property by some chance should depreciate far below the first actual cost. Whether this is liable to happen in the case of this particular tract of land must be judged by each for himself but considering the steady and unprecedented advance on real estate in this city and neighborhood and at East Portland and vicinity for the last year or two it seems hardly possible for values to go back.

In the Riverside Association all proper precautions seem to have been taken to guard against monopolies of shares. No person is allowed to buy more than the number of shares representing three blocks or twenty four lots and votes determining the operations of the Association are restricted in the same manner. The buyers of shares may pay down $60 per share, which will exempt them from all assessments or they may pay $10 quarterly with an assessment of $3 per share payable with the first installment being liable in this latter case to another (and only one other) assessment of $3 per share. Upon the payment of the shares in full with the assessment as above the holder is entitled to his certificate and his proportion of all the profits accrued from all sources. No officer of the Association receives any pay for services except the Secretary who gets $25 per month so it will be seen that the expenses must be light.

That part of the tract lying along the river is a high plateau nearly level, about 50 to 90 feet above the water. There is no part of the front row of blocks but commands a splendid view of Portland and the river for miles up and down stream. That part of the tract lying along the railroad is every foot of it, of the richest loam soil and adapted to gardening purposes. A beautiful little stream of pure water runs through almost the entire length of this wing of the tract affording the means of irrigation and power sufficient to supply pure water to every part of the whole tract. There is not a waste lot or fractional lot in the entire tract. Under all these advantages it would seem impossible that there should be any chance of loss to shareholders. Within a year each shareholder if he choose may get a perfect title to as many lots as his shares may represent or he may continue his interest undivided with the Association while the organization may exist.—Oregonian.
